“ I was Gloria's mailman from 2013 until she entered Wesley Glen. I will never forget her smile and her outgoing talkative nature. She loved to talk, make friends and engage you in the events of the day. Truly special and beautiful.

“ My mother Helen Barnum who died in 1999 considered Gloria one of her dearest friends. Their friendship began at Overbrook Church. They were travel companions several times, and Mother used to tell me how much fun and many laughs they they enjoyed together. I remember Gloria very fondly. Deepest condolences to her friends and family.

“ Gloria always took the time to send my son Joey a birthday card. They shared the same birthday which made it even more special. Kids came first before anything else in her life. Gloria will make everyone in Heaven smile.
