

Grace E. Clark

December 4, 1924 - August 5, 2016

Grace E. Clark died on August 5, 2016, at the age of 91, at the Zusman House at Wexner Heritage Village in Bexley. The Clark family mourns the passing of their matriarch. She was a charter member and active participant at Lincoln Baptist Church (now The Church Next Door), a founding member of the Lincoln Village Garden Club, and a long-time member of the Worthington Hills Country Club. An avid reader and a traveler to all corners of the earth, she had a fertile imagination and an endless quest for new knowledge. Her attitude of always putting the needs of everyone else before her own, her sure confidence and unshakable calm in times of stress and crisis, and her simple faith are the qualities that will be the most missed by all who knew and loved her. Predeceased by her husband of 47 years, William A. Clark, her parents, James and Lillian Knowles of Steubenville, OH, and her sister Ruth (Ed) Jarzabek of Wintersville, OH. Survived by her children, William J. (Vickie) Clark, Robert A. (Gail) Clark and Gary E. (Noel) Clark; her virtual sister, Miriam Lloyd; grandchildren, William (Sarah) Clark, Laura Clark, Lisa Allen, Kevin Clark, Andrew (Elise) Clark, Erin Clark and Grace Clark; and great-grandchildren, Melody Sherrill, Nathan Allen, Noah Davis and Eleanor Grace Clark. Friends may call at RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High Street, Worthington from 5:00 – 8:00 PM, Monday, August 8, 2016. “ Dear Clark Family, there is joy and sadness at the same time as your mother leaves this earth to step into the presence of God our creator. The Holy Spirit will be your comforter today and in the future. Growing up in Lincoln Baptist Church, I was blessed to watch as both Grace and Bill modeled what a believer was to present to the world. Young people need to see this same passion today that Grace and Bill possessed due to their relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time of goodbyes, but at the same time see you soon mom.
