“ I loved getting to know and take care of Gracie at Tuscany Gardens. She had a great sense of humor and always knew how to put a smile on my face. She loved going down the halls singing just about anything. I loved her like family. Sending thoughts and prayers to the family.

“ When attending nursing school in Columbus a 'few' years ago, I spent some weekends at Grandmom's. I would take a bus straight up High St to Worthington. Sometimes Grandmom or Joe would come down and pick me up. A funny story between Joe and the school's matron will wait for another day. But these visits did afford me as a young adult to spend time with my Aunt Gracie. She enjoyed our 'girl chats that often went late into the evening or ended by Grandmom ushering us to bed. Gracie had her own fashion sense, liked to talk about boys and movies but mostly family. She could be very convincing at times as she even got me to attend church with her. I do appreciate and cherish that I did come to know My Aunt Gracie at least in some small part. May she rest in peace .

“ Sharing our love and care with the rest of our family as we remember Aunt Gracie... My time spent with her was when I was very young, on summer visits to Ohio, then the few Willis family reunions over the years, so most of what I know about her came through other family members. What I do recall is that although not seeing her often and having a huge family, she always knew who I was. She will be in our hearts and memories. Sending love to my aunts and uncles, Gracie's siblings, as you say your final farewell to your sweet sister. xo Christina Sinton-Gorman, Martin, Aodhán, & Rónán Gorman
