“ Dear Gail and family, I just heard of Greg's passing. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I am now living in Bloomington, IN close to Donna and her family. We both will have fond memories of Brookside and fun times our families had. Our prayers that God will comfort you at this very difficult time.

Joyce Cathell - May 26, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ We are very sorry for your loss. Greg was always so nice to our family. We loved how he would always take time to stop and talk if he saw us out at his mom's house. I remember the friendly little snowman competition he had this past winter with her neighbor. He was so nice to let a couple of my kids join in his fun with Bela and Jonah. He will be missed. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I knew Greg first as a client of his landscape services, then quickly we became good friends as we discovered we were soul mates. It's as if we'd known each other our whole lives. More recently we also started working together on some projects. Greg was a wonderful man, a great friend, and a joy to know. He will surely be missed.

“ What a shock to hear of this sad news. I am a 1990 WHS graduate and remember Greg fondly. Mrs. Wetterauer was also one of my elementary school teachers. I am so sorry for your loss. I reside in Atlanta so we won't be able to attend the service, but our thoughts and prayers are with his entire family.

“ Tuck and Gail and Wetterauer family - My heart is so heavy knowing the profound loss you must endure. I didn't know Greg - but I know he had two parents who loved him and so many family members and friends who will have such a void in their lives with his passing. There are no words that can take away your pain - I know that, but perhaps knowing that you are being carried on the wings of prayer gives some solace. With deepest sympathy - Sue Torrens

“ Always a smile, a lending hand and a huge heart radiated from Greg. While I didn't know him very long, he was a huge help with some projects at my house, and it was always a pleasure to see him. May God wrap his arms around you in this time of sorrow. Take His hand and sit in His lap for comfort. He sheds tears as He dries yours. Grasp the fond memories and fun times you shared with Greg and treasure those.

“ My mind floods with soothing memories from our youth when I first learned to cherish the gentle, compassionate and loving nature of our friend Greg. From all of the practices to carting each other around when our bones were broken to setting our clocks to "whateverhour". Greg was more special to me than I could ever explain and helped me through some of my most pained moments. My entire family will deeply miss him and always cherish the memories of Greg. Tuck & Gail: thank you for giving us your boy for as long as we had him. We will always hold him dear in our hearts. It is my hope that time and warm memories of Greg may someday ease the burden of our loss until we rejoin him in heaven where there is only joy. May God's Love be with Kara and her children along with the entire Wetterauer clan. On behalf of my entire family- our deepest sympathies, Kurt Feldmann
