“ Dear Rosemary, I often think of Warren teaching my grandson at Orange Friends and being so considerate of Andrew's reading disability. Thanks to his help, Andrew earned a mechanical engineering degree and is a faithful member of The Vineyard. My deepest sympathy to you and your family. Florobel Lacher

“Rosemary & family. So sorry about your loss of a wonderful Father & Husband. I worked with him at Mt. Carmel Hospital and we also attended Church together with all your family. He had a great personality and was a pleasure to work with. May the Lord bless and comfort you. We love all of you. I pray for strength for you to carry on as you have so willingly done in the past years.

“Rosemary and Family, I had the pleasure of starting my career in health care working with Warren at Mt Carmel. Warren, Gene McCombs, Betty Cardwell and I comprised the Financial Counseling Team or Credit Office when I started in 1973. Warren was a true gentlemen and a great mentor for my early experience in hospital work. I am sorry for your loss and wish you God's comfort in the time ahead.
