“ Sending my condolences to Herold's family. I so loved the conversations we would have,as I would cut his hair. He would always ask me about my father who is also up in years. He would update me on his family and the latest events that had taken place. He would laugh with a deep joy, while sharing his family stories with me. Knowing this day has to come someday in all of our lives, I think of where He is now and the complete Joy he has to be experiencing. He will be greatly missed. Bless you
