

Harriett Anne Stovall Clark

February 11, 2010

Harriett Anne Stovall Clark, age 81, died on February 11, 2010, surrounded by loving family. The daughter of Mack and Josephine (Maugans) Stovall, she was born in Columbus, OH. She was an alumna of Columbus North High School and OSU, where she earned a BS in Nursing, and later an MA in Social Work. She is fondly remembered by many for her compassionate work in both fields. Harriett also loved performing, playing the piano, writing, singing, and sharing her humor with the world. She lived in several places, including New Castle, PA; Minneapolis, MN; Cocoa, FL; and Toronto, Canada; but most of her life was spent in the Columbus, OH area, the last 32 years in Dublin. She was pre-deceased by her husband Maurice "Bee" Clark. She is survived by her beloved children, Jody, Nathan, and Todd Moore, Kristen Moore Long (Donald), Sally Clark (Andy Thissen); granddaughters, Mia and Chelsea Long; four step-children and their families; brother, Roger Stovall (Avilon); cousins, David Maugans (Janice) and Donald Bloor; other family members; and many cherished friends. Funeral services will be on Sunday, February 14, 2010, at RUTHERFORD CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 North High Street, Worthington. Calling hours from 1-3 p.m., service at 3 p.m. Private burial will be at Dublin Cemetery. Donations may be made to Capital Area Humane Society, 3015 Scioto-Darby Executive Court, Hilliard, OH 43026.
