“ I helped take care of Harry Lee when his father was alive. This was in the 1980s. I was one of his many caregivers working under Dr Carrie Lee Kemberling. He was an absolute Joy, and I was just amazed how dedicated Mr Desmond was in taking care of his son. I think of him on and off, and I thought I would look up to see where he might be and I see that he passed away. He was a delight to be with. And caring for him was one of the joys of my life. I lost touch with Mr Desmond when I returned back to California and when I came back to Ohio I had discovered that he had passed away. Always wondered about Harry Lee. He is now whole and well and United with his mother and father. He truly, all of the staff and Dr Kemberling blessed my life during that time.

“ I worked with Harry Lee during the fall of 1981 when I was a seminarian at the Josephinum. It was a joy to work with him and his amazing parents! Harry Lee brought so much joy to all of us who knew him. I thank God for the opportunity to get to know such a wonderful person. You're all in my prayers!
