There will never be another Heidi, such a special woman, my heart breaks with you.

Angie Santangelo Lisws - March 21, 2024 at 07:19 PM

Kevin, what a wonderful tribute of your life together. Heidi had the most beautiful smile & gregarious personality. May your memories ease your pain.

Wanda Sidley - March 22, 2024 at 12:17 PM

Beautiful. I was her coworker for over 20 years and I can't remember a day she didn't have that smile! She'll be missed.

Nanci Hysell - March 22, 2024 at 02:50 PM

Kevin, this is beautiful, touching, and heartwarming. You can see in her smile how much she enjoyed her life with family and friends. She was an amazing friend. Keeping you in my prayers. ❤️

Heidi was a remarkable, capable, confident, welcoming, generous woman, well-respected by her State Auto family, of which I was (for a short time) a part. All who knew her were drawn to her kindness and ever-present, joyful smile. I bet she still is smiling.

“ Heidi was one of the friendliest, genuine, and kindest people I've known. I met Heidi at State Auto, where we worked in different departments. Always wearing her beautiful warm smile, Heidi was the most gracious, generous, and welcoming hostess at the parties and gatherings I had the pleasure to attend in her home. I followed her courageous battle with cancer through her updates on Facebook and admired her optimistic attitude and the way she lived her life to its fullest. Rest in peace, Heidi. My sincere condolences to her husband, family and friends.

“ Heidi was a vibrant, knowledgeable and candid participant of our third Wednesday of the month ovarian cancer support group Zooms.

Kevin, we loved seeing photos of your travels during group. She adored her family and friends and it was a pleasure to see the beautiful photo collage you assembled and to catch a glimpse of her with those she loved.

Heidi also participated as a panelist in SHARE's webinar on blood clots.

Whenever I had a helpline caller with clear cell histology who was asking about a therapy that had benefited Heidi, Heidi generously gave of her time to call that woman.

We will miss her smile, her laugh and her wisdom. She was truly an inspiration.

May all the good memories you have bring you comfort in this time of loss.

“ Though they lived several hours away from each other, Heidi was my mom's best friend since childhood. She was a kind and genuine person who always asked about me and my brother when she visited. She will be missed.

I've made a donation to the Ovarian Cancer Alliance of Ohio in her memory.

“ Heidi had a smile and welcome for everyone. She loved playing board games and cards, word puzzles, bargain shopping, the color green, koalas, collecting decks of cards, and shoes. She hosted fun New Year's and football parties. Heidi introduced me to the Columbus Ale Trail and completed her Trail book a few times. She had a sense of adventure and joined me on several trips. She was a proud tour guide of her hometown. Heidi loved her husband, her nephew and his family, her friend Joan, and her sweet cat Etta, to name a few. Heidi touched so many! She was a good friend to me, and I have so many memories since we joined the same team in 2014. Thank you for the joy and laughter, Heidi!
Thank you to the ovarian cancer support community. My sympathy to her family. I appreciate you sharing Heidi with us.
