

Helen Elizabeth Anglim

October 14, 1922 - April 3, 2017

Helen Elizabeth Anglim, age 94, passed away peacefully April 3, 2017 surrounded by the family she loved. She was born October 14, 1922 on the Noll family farm in Perry County, Ohio. She moved to Columbus after graduating from Holy Trinity High School in Somerset and attended Capital Business School. She worked in Columbus until she met the love of her life, Jerry Anglim. They were married January 28, 1943, and quickly went about raising 6 children in Worthington, Ohio. Her life's dedication was to her family. This steadfast commitment led to a wondrous journey: from growing tomatoes in the back yard garden of the family's home in Colonial Hills, to adventuring on family camping and fishing trips, to working church festivals, to directing Girl Scout Summer Camps, to cheering at Watterson Wrestling matches and Ohio State Buckeye Games, to bowling and playing cards with the girls and beating the men during "The Sunday Night Bridge Games". She returned to work after her children were grown at Worthington Bakery and then at Ohio Workmen's Compensation. She welcomed with loving arms the additions to her family as the grandchildren and great grandchildren kept coming. She always said, "The more the merrier." She was an active member of both Saint Michael and Saint Anthony parishes. She was the best daughter, sister, aunt, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, friend, and neighbor one could ever know. She will be greatly missed and surely remembered with a smile by all those whose life she touched. Preceded in death by parents, John and Veronica

“ Our Prayers are with the entire Anglim family. Her roots run deep with her Somerset cousins, and her special love of the farm. We remembered her today in prayer at her alma matter, Holy Trinity School, where her picture hangs in our school hallway (Class of 1940.) She leaves a great legacy behind, and is certainly smiling in Heaven. Bill Noll, Principal, Holy Trinity School Somerset.
