“ We cherish the memories we have of Helen. She was in every a lady, something there are very few of these days. She was kind to our family and the short time we knew her, always seemed to feel at home when in our presence. I'm thankful she didn't have suffer for a long time. God was merciful in taking her home to be with him. Our love to the whole family. May God keep you in his care and may his peace abide in each of you.
