“ I did not know Helen Magorien or her family, nor did I know of her until I read her obituary in the Monroe County Beacon. Her obituary honors her well. It is clear to me, even as a perfect stranger in this sea of humanity, that Helen was a substantial presence in this world and lived her life well. I know she will be missed.

“Helen added a special sparkle to our neighborhood, and I know she was so happy living here. Not only did she hand out a lot of love... she got it all back twofold. She was ‘special’ to everyone...and especially to me when I became her adopted ‘sister’. I always thought Helen was bubbly and vivacious....and that her beauty came from her heart and showed on her face. It’s true that she will be missed by her loving family....and also by her many friends. Thank you, Helen, for all the years, love, and memories. I would say that you are in God's care now...but we know you've always been in his care.
