

Henry "Hank" Fackler

September 7, 1946 - July 29, 2025

Henry "Hank" Fackler, 78, of Lewis Center, Ohio, passed peacefully into God's embrace at 5:04 a.m. on Tuesday, July 29, 2025. Born on September 7, 1946, to the late Cleal and Francis (Brown) Fackler, Hank lived a life defined by devotion, integrity, and quiet strength.

On September 28, 1981, he married the love of his life, Cynthia, who survives him. Together they enjoyed a family grounded in love and laughter. Hank is also survived by five children: Michelle Broad of Findlay, Brian Collins of Powell, Stephanie Bennett of Powell, Chad Fackler of Deshler, and Shannon Janczewski of Deshler, as well as 10 grandchildren who brought endless joy to his days.

Hank was a man of remarkable capability—organized, meticulous, and always ready with a solution. Whether repairing a broken appliance or lending a steady hand in a time of need, he was someone everyone could count on. His deep love for his family was evident in everything he did. He was fiercely devoted to his grandchildren and treasured every moment he spent with them. His bond with Cynthia was the cornerstone of his life. She was his anchor and greatest joy, and together they built a life filled with loyalty, laughter, and unwavering commitment.

A lifelong dog lover, Hank shared his home and heart with many cherished companions including Murphy, Max, Sophie, and Bear. They were a source of comfort, joy, and quiet understanding—mirroring the kindness and steadiness that defined him. He served his country in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War and later retired as Department Manager from Ball Metal after 32 years of dedicated service. Hank was a proud veteran and a hard-working man whose legacy will continue to inspire those who knew him.

He is also survived by his sister, Cindy (Kenneth) Isom of Pulaski, VA. He was preceded in death by his siblings Bo Fackler of Deshler, William “Bill” (Rhonda) Fackler of Bryan, John (Connie) Fackler of Deshler, Gary Brown, and Deanna Ackerman.

Hank’s life was a testament to the quiet power of kindness, the strength of family bonds, and a faith that sustained him. He will be deeply missed, fondly remembered, and forever loved.

Tribute Wall

MA

“ I met Hank many years ago through my late husband, Rob Aldrich. The Fackler and Aldrich boys could nearly always be found together, enjoying being kids, living in Deshler, Ohio. Rob later worked with Hank and his brother, Bo, at Ball Metal in Findlay. I recall Hank being a very nice young man, who cared for his family. The Fackler and Aldrich boys are together once again!

Mary Aldrich - August 07, 2025 at 05:13 PM

DL

“ To Hank's Family,
We offer our deepest sympathies. He was someone you will never forget. I remember him always saying he had the winning lottery ticket. I don't know if he really won or not. He was a kind and good hearted person. I am sure God welcomed him home with open arms. He will surely be missed.

Dan & Jane Lammers - August 05, 2025 at 12:37 PM