“ Dear Vickie and Joy, This is both a Great Time Of Sadness and Of Elation. The sadness is of course for the passing of your Father..The most compassionate and gentle man I have ever met.

I will always remember Your Dad and Mom...Both Elegant and Loving.

My fondest memory Is when they would come to Thanksgiving Dinner at (Mary and Vic's) when we were young and I always Loved to smell Uncle Herb's Pipe.

He took Great pride in his pipe and I Most certainly enjoyed the smell of it.

They Were both Quite the Dancerselegant and smooth.

I know they are together now and watching over all of you.

Our Prayers go out To Vicky, Joy and Their Families

Love to All

“ Dear Joy and Vicky,

Never was there a more tender soul than your father. He truly was a kind gentleman. I pray that God will give you comfort in these hours of grief. As for me I am happy to celebrate Herb's life. I know Margaret Ann as well as Vic and Mary, my parents, are there to greet him. With a grateful heart, now is the time to remember and share all the wonderful times. Herb you were very special.

I can only say I have fond memories of him taking us little ones for a boat ride on Hoover Dam one summer. Then there were those summer visits of just sitting in the back year on Acton Road with Aunt Iva and Uncle Roy, enjoying the weather and listening to their funny stories.

It was always so much fun to see the Caris family on Thanksgiving Day too at my parents' house. We would play and sing music, push back the furniture in the den, watch Mark and Linda dance. We certainly were blessed to grow up during a time that allowed us to just "be". Thank you Uncle Herb for being you.

With Grace and Love,

Dawn Marie Moseley, Mark Moseley and Jim and Truey Mackaman families.

“ Grandpa,
You were a man of strength, courage, perseverance, love and care. I am very thankful that I got to spend 27 years on this earth with you. But I am more grateful for the fact that when the time comes, I get to spend the rest of eternity with you in a better place. You left a huge mark on all of us, your words were wise, and will always last with us. Without you, there wouldn't have been us, and without us, you wouldn't have had so many people to have white castle with haha, or share laughs with. And without you this world would have been a sadder place, so thank you for spending 90 years here on earth and for making it a better place. Your legacy will always go on, and we will never forget you.

Until we see you again, we love you.
Tyler & Laura Bradley

P.S. Start the wood shop drawings now, I plan on spending a lot of time with you there.

“ I don't even know what to say. words can't describe how I feel right now. I miss him so much. hes been the main focus for so long now its just like "Now what?" I'm gonna miss taking you to those doctors and getting you water and asking if you want a "toasted cheese sandwich" or making sure you had enough to eat. I'm gonna miss you being in your work space building stuff. I'm gonna miss it all. I know you had been ready to go but it was still too soon for me. Nothing is going to be the same I just have to face that. This last year has been hard for all of us but I wouldn't trade it for the world; and I'd do it all over again. I love you Grandpa to the moon and back! I'm gonna miss you and this isn't going to be easy; but you and grandma both taught me to be strong so that's what I'm gonna do! I'll make you proud!

“ I will dearly miss this man, he has been such a big part of my daily life for the last 6 years, I'm lost right now. No amount of planning and preparing makes you ready to actually say goodbye even though I know in my heart he was ready, he missed my Grandmother dearly. I know they are up there dancing and probably arguing a bit (lol), they truly loved each other. I have so many memories that I will hold dear to my heart. I know he is where he is meant to be, he lived a good full life but he will surely be missed. What a great video with lots of fun pictures! Love you Grandpa!!
