“ You have my deepest sympathy for the loss of Houshang Maani. He was a wonderful, generous, and sensitive person. I had the great pleasure to know him for the past several years when he joined Columbus Rotary. I will greatly miss seeing him at the meetings and activities. The world is much better for his presence with us and is diminished by his departure. If I were not out of town, I would attend his funeral and give my condolences directly to his family and other friends.

“ Dear Micah, Lynn, and Family, I was saddened to read of your father-in-law/grandfather's passing. I know Micah respected and loved his grandfather. I understand the care and compassion you extended while taking care of him. I am glad Micah could complete his senior project and spend that time with his grandfather. Please accept my deepest condolences and sympathy during this difficult time. Sincerely, Cece Robbins
