“ Our condolence to Rev. Buckley's family. We attended the Ohio Ave. Church back in the 50s when Wally was stationed at what was then Lockbourne Air Force Base. It was our church home away from home which was Michigan & have many good memories. We've kept in touch with Norma Mills who informed us of his passing. What a legacy he's left with his 97 yrs. You were blessed to have him so long and I'm sure have many happy times to recall. Wally & Arletta Fritz [from Alachua, FL]

“ My prayers go out to Ann, Steve, and the entire Buckley family. It was my priveledge to have Rev. Buckley as a pastor growing up at North United Methodist Church in the late 60's and 70's. I have so many wonderful memories of both Rev. Buckley and Mrs. Buckley. The great times at the parsonage with Mrs. Buckley's homemade pizza, church camp and weekend retreats with MYF to Camp Otterbein, the Waffle Suppers, and so many others. Of course there were times we didn't do the right thing and he would scold us. And you knew you were being scolded, but you also knew it was being done in love. I am so grateful for that firm hand and for Rev. Buckley's love for the Lord. He taught me so much and helped make me the person I am today. I am sure the Lord is saying to him "Well done, good and faithful servant!"

“ My Dear Cousins: Uncle Howard was beloved. He and Mary Jane supported us through good times and rough times. He was always there, and could see the good in everything. I loved to hear him laugh. He loved his ice cream! I have great memories of going to the cabin, of visiting his homes. He was always in a hurry and was sometimes impatient when we weren't but we loved him. He would laugh when we reminded him to "slow down" He would care for Ken, Chris and Ariel when I needed. He was an important person in our all of lives and will be missed.

“ Helen & I first became acquainted with both Howard & Mary Jane when Rev. Buckley served as pastor of Westgate UMC. We remember both as quiet, gentle and caring individuals. We consider it our good fortune to have known, worked with and loved them. We offer our condolences to the family. May God be with you.
