

Howard Daniel Smith

October 13, 1932 - December 6, 2017

Howard Daniel Smith (Dan) was born to the late Hazel Margaret and Lysle R Smith on October 13, 1932 in St. Mary's WestVA. He graduated from East Liverpool High School and the Ohio State University from the School of Architecture. He served as the president of his fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha. Dan also served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Army. In 1981 he founded his own architectural and planning firm, Smith Associates Architects and Planners. A few of his firm's achievements include the design of many Dublin City Schools, Ashland Oil Inc. projects and The Benedictine University in Lyle, IL. Mr. Smith was a member of the Dublin Community Church, Kiwanis Club, The Masonic Service Organization and past president of the Columbus chapter of the American Association of Architects.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara; daughter Cynthia (husband Ken) and grandchildren Laura, Alison & Kenneth and great-grandson Hudson; son Daniel (wife Judy) and granddaughter Loni and great-grandchildren Zane and Athena; daughter Melinda (husband Dr. David) and grandsons Nathan, Mitchell, Adam and Jason; daughter Jennifer and grandson Krishna; sisters Hazel, Carolyn and Mary.

A Celebration of Life will be planned for a later date. Dan was driven by the highest ethical and artistic standards in the pursuit of excellence and his memory will be honored with love. To send an online condolence, please visit www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com

“ Our condolences from the Simon family. I can't remember a time when my father and Dan weren't friends...they go back to our childhood and continued to the present day. Such a sad loss for everyone.

“ I knew Dan at East Liverpool High School ('50) and remember him well, as friendly and upbeat, a leader. (Incidentally, also handsome.) I was astonished to learn he was an architect here in Columbus and that my husband, Albert Sedeen, knew him well.
