“ Ida Lois Morrison Jacobs

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ Jerry, Mindy, Dave and kids. It's been a really long time since I have seen any of you but we have talked about all of you in recent months as we cleaned out and sold my dad's house after his passing. Never put off till tomorrow....as they say. I waited too long to go and see her. However, I do know that Lois was a strong Christian woman and is rejoicing in heaven with all of those who went before her. I have no doubt she will be sorely missed by all.

“ I don't even know where to begin. Over the last several years Lois and I became really close. I saw her almost daily and sometimes several times a day. Lord knows she had her share of health issues, but always had a smile on her face, she was an inspiration to me. We shared a strong faith which always makes a relationship even more special. I will be lost without her, but I know she left this earth and into the arms of Jesus. I will carry her close in my heart, she was truly a gift to me. I will continue to keep her family and loved ones in my prayers, for I know they are left with a huge hole in their hearts. Love and Prayers....Susie Remeis

“ Lois was a wonderful friend who, among other things, cared for our children who were born while we lived in Columbus. We knew she loved them; she even cross-stitched a lovely piece for each of them. We were privileged to know and love her children, too (including the in-laws) and pray they have precious memories to sustain them.

“ I remember when my husband and I got married Lois asked my mom what our house colors were going to be and crocheted a super soft blanket for us. We still have the blanket- every time I pull it out I think about Lois and how she is/was so sweet to take the time and thoughtfulness to make that gift.

“ If I could have hand-picked a mother-in-law (well, I sort of did), there couldn't have been a better one. She was dedicated to her family and especially to my children. She will be sorely missed at every holiday and special event in the coming years. A very big hole left by a very tiny woman. I sure did love you, Lois Morrison!!! 🍓🍓

Lois was a truly wonderful person. She was a caring woman. The time I spent when I was around her was really memorable even after I got married. Would go to social gatherings with women of the church. She always had a smile on her face. She really cared for people no matter who they were. God is getting another angel and is rejoicing in Heaven. God be with the family in this time of sorrow. Pat New and Ken Traxler 🌸🌸🌸🌸🕊

Lois and my family go way back. She was my first Sunday school teacher. She was in our home frequently practicing with a women's quartet. She was the church's Sunday school secretary. And many, many more recent memories. What a blessing she was to so many throughout her life.
