“ I am an aid at Sunrise and treasure every moment I spent with Jeanne. She shared wonderful stories about her time at the Depot and as a businesswoman who started her own answering service company. She was way ahead of her time! She talked about going to Ohio State football games, the long walk to the stadium then going out for a nice dinner and a drink after. She missed her husband, adored her church friends, and treasured a special window visit with the twin boys. I'm so grateful I got to be her friend and love her dearly.💛
