“ Irene Ash was a longtime participant at North Community Lutheran Church before it closed. She enjoyed attending the God, You, and Me (GYM) class for individuals with Special Abilities. She could be seen doing fishes in the church kitchen for many dinners and celebration events we had at North Community. She loved to sing with us some of her favorite hymns from being in a choir at a former institutional living facility. She had worked as a helper aide under the watchful guidance of one of our older members, Clara Markham, and her family for many years. She worked as a Wendy’s dining room aide at the Wendy’s in Olentangy Plaza shopping center when she lived in a rental house off of Postlewaite. She loved trains and learning many things about them. She always had a smile on her face and when people asked how she was, she liked to joke about “Being Trouble, or trying to stay out of trouble.” Rest in peace, Irene, and enjoy your new life with Jesus. I know he was waiting for you.
