“ Isabelle was a dear friend who helped me throughout many years in organizing and planning the Ohio Ministries Convocation, a yearly event of the Ohio Council of Churches. With her attention to detail and her kindness, she showed me the way to an organized, well planned and orderly event. We shared many laughs, especially during Council's retreats. She made my life so much better and less stressful! I am grateful for her friendship and especially for her sweet, unassuming way. She will be dearly missed. Ximena Jones

“ I have known Isabelle for over 38 years; she was our daughter Jenny's first Sunday school teacher. For all those years Isabelle was a friend and mentor, who always had a positive outlook about life and living. I especially treasure the times in the past two years, when Isabelle was unable to drive, that Nancy Gay and I could take her to lunch. She was always good company. I will miss Isabelle very much.

“ Our condolences from the Mosher family, Sharon, Chris, Chase, and Nick. We were Isabelle's very next door neighbors for 13 years. She was a joy. She always had a warm smile for our boys and we looked out for each other. The slate from our roof would come of now and then in storms, and she always let us know. I was thankful. We admired each others very small yield of tomatoes and summer vegetables. We also always looked forward to her pretty Christmas card and even prettier signature. We obviously have treasured memories. Again, our thoughts are with her family.

“ I have known Isabelle since 1974 as a member of university baptist church until i left the church four years ago. thru the years, isabelle taught our youngest child in sunday school as a pre-schooler. isabelle and i shared a small group study with nicki lyons and meredith hughes. we studied spong and borg among others. isabelle came to our house on special occassions such as the college graduation party for our son, jason. nicki and i had the privilige of taking isabelle out to lunch in the last two years. i will miss isabelle. she has alsways been a role model for me to follow as she showed her love for others in many different ways, staying active with her church family and involved with others from around the world as she participated in coffee hour each wednesday morning at university baptist church.
