“ *Debbie, Mrs. Liebert and family - our sincere and heartfelt sympathy and empathy on the passing of Mr. Liebert. We both remember well when he would come to the Renaissance weekly meetings and ask our dog "Charlie" to attend with them all. I remember your shared Sunday brunches at Renaissance and we both so much appreciate your contribution to this and many other communities in the area. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all as you begin to navigate this new life ahead. Mr. Liebert was well loved and will be more than well remembered by all he touched. In time may your memories come to comfort you, I know that we will be. You were all blessed to have him as long as you did. Our sympathy goes with you always.
