“ Jack loved his time with God thru his Bible. Dan and I had the honor of caring for "Papa" as Analisa called him. He taught us valuable lessons and Bible lessons thru the stories during his last days. I was blessed to work at home and help keep Jack home till he passed with the limited medical care experience I have. One day I rounded the corner into the sun room and there he was in his sun hat and sunglasses comparing his King James to a version. Of Large Print King James we got him for Christmas. I snapped his photo on my phone and used it to paint his potrait so he will forever be in the sun room in memory. We miss you so much.

“ To Joan, Dan, Lorre, Analisa & families,

So sorry to hear the news of Jack's passing. I got to know Jack last year when, as a caregiver from Comfort Keepers of Hilliard, I started seeing him on a weekly basis. Such a caring man.....we spent many hours just talking about his Navy Life, his childhood, his family. I will never forget the day early on when we were discussing World War II and he said he had newspapers from back then. He knew exactly where they were and showed them to me. I have always been a history buff since I got out of school and I enjoyed our conversations immensely. I am so thankful I had this opportunity to spend this time with Jack. I will miss you my dear friend!!! God bless you!

“ It was a privilege to have known and shared in working for the Lord with Jack. Jack loved God from the deepest part of his heart. Jack was extremely humble and would always give God the glory. Besides sharing the same middle name and initials, I will greatly miss sharing the stories of his childhood and his many interests. One of my favorite was his memory of laying on the deck of a carrier at night and viewing the starry heavens. He would say as tears came to his eyes, “How could anyone experience such awesome beauty and not believe in a loving God?” His generosity and selfless service in the Church and Community was a great example and inspiration to me. Enjoy your reward with Christ my special friend.
