“ Jack & I worked together at HER in Dublin when I was a new agent. I will always remember his kindness. He was a true & honest gentleman. My sympathies to his family.

“ My Dad and I first met Jack in the fall of 1971 when we went to Daniels Buick to view the new 1972 models. It happened to be a Monday when the dealership closed at 5 PM and although we arrived just a few minutes before closing, Jack stayed to show us the new cars. We never forgot that. We dealt with Jack and Craig into the mid-70s and then reconnected forty years later when we met again playing Euchre with him, Craig and Diana with the Whetstone Euchre Group. Jack remained a delight to play cards with and he shared many a story from his younger days. He was a fine gentleman and we feel fortunate to have crossed paths with him in both a business and personal way and we were sorry to learn of his passing.
