“ Jack was one of the most caring individuals I have known. I value the memories of our coach - umpire relations , our Hindman lunches, and time together at various outings just talking baseball. As one of the very best umpires, he truly enjoyed his time on the field with players and coaches. He was a member of the Umpire's Assoc. Hall of Fame, a most deserving honor. Our sympathy to Tim and and all of Jack's family.

“ I will miss seeing Jack's smile when I return to volunteering at WCV. I hope he enjoyed our "Watterson" baseball conversations as much as I did. Our life experiences kept intersecting between Watterson and Beechwold Christian families. He is such a sweet soul. I'm happy he is reunited with Anita and I know I will see him again in Heaven.

“ I was so fortunate for the opportunity to know Jack Timmons. My mother is in the same nursing home where he resided. They had a special friendship and spent some wonderful times together. His family was so welcoming to her, sometimes inviting her to join Jack into their home. I will remember his stories of umpiring, his sense of humor, warm and friendly spirit, along with his care and generosity to my mother. Condolences to his family and many friends. God Bless Jack Timmons and may he Rest In Peace. Dan Taylor

“ We were so sorry to hear of Jack’s passing. When we were younger, Jack made many trips to his mother’s home in Coshocton. Whether it was to visit his Grandma Carrie or watch harness horse racing at the County Fair, Jack’s laugh could always be heard above the rest. He was a true gem of a man; was always supportive of those in his family and those with whom he worked. Countless young men benefitted from his years of umpiring. Jack loved everyone and everyone loved Jack. He will be truly missed!

Jack Timmons was a "one of a kind" guy. He was so proud of his family, especially his grandchildren. He and Anita were so much fun to visit with. They both had some great stories about the "old days" and their life experiences. Jack was a great salesman and I learned a lot from him over our years working at Oberfields. He had a great relationship with all his customers and knew what each ones family was doing and what school they attended. His love of baseball was only exceeded by his love of God and of his family. He and Anita are together again now and enjoying each other.
