“ Mr. Williams(Jack) was truly a "prince" of a man. I was so honored to have him as my band director and music instructor when I was a young student at Willsboro Central School in the late 1960's. Mr. Williams was always so kind and courteous to everyone. He certainly could be called a "gentleman's gentleman." This fine, outstanding man will be remembered in my daily prayers. Humbly & Respectfully, Father Alfred H. Fish. - (a fan of Mr. Williams).

“ I always loved to talk to Jack and kid around with him! He would often come into Pepboys and buy all his parts from me. I'm glad he is one of my brothers in Christ and look forward to seeing him again to share laughter and some good stories! What a personality the Lord gave Jack!

“ Thinking of Jack always puts a smile on my face, he had such a joyful soul. I learn shortly after high school where his had to have at least partly inherited it from, when I has the sincere pleasure of working with his "always laughing" mom Shirley at Blue Shield. Blessing to all the Williams family, Lynn Church-Akin, WHS'74

“ Jack was a great person and one of my favorite personalities. I had the privilege of meeting him late in his life; we both shared a kindred spirit; the holy spirit in christ Jesus. He was a bando man and even with his kind and generous personality, he has fought and trained for decades with many of the most prolific fighters in the known free world....he gave himself to the service of others via a higher power. The world is a little darker without Jack Williams... its was an honor, Jack. God bless your soul and watch over your loved ones. Inshallah.

“ Jack was a dear brother in Christ and served his church for many years. He brightened up a room when he came into it. Always upbeat and always busy, mostly helping others. He would as the old saying goes give you the shirt off his back. If you needed it he would actually do it. I will miss him dearly, but to the family, we know he is in a better place, in the bosom of his Savior Jesus Christ. He is in a place where there is no pain, no sorrow, no dying. I pray that God will comfort and give peace to the family in this time of sorrow.

“ I am so sad to hear about Jack's passing. He had many great friends who relished his sense of humor, smile and positive disposition no matter the circumstances. May he rest in peace. Should you need anything Mary just call me.

He will be missed....Doug Karr
