“ I don't know who still checks up on this today. Let me tell you something Jaci was an angel. I will leave and breathe this until the day I pass away, she did nothing but care for everyone else, she was so unselfish. She made sure everyone was okay before herself and it broke her down, I remember when she made sure all of my friends were always well fed, cleaned, and in a stable situation. She had dreams of making her own home just in order to help other people that need it the most and I will forever remember her and this moment. For anyone who reads this just know she's god's angel and she's in good hands. See you when I can Jaci. She was my mom when my mom couldn't and I will always love her as my own mother because I felt as if she was. Sent with Love- Warren

“ How sad we feel and our hearts break. I will always cherish the memory I have of Jaci when she was just born. When she came home from the hospital I stayed over to help out where ever I was needed. The most special times was when I was able to hold her and see the miracle of life. How blessed I feel to have been able to see her grow up over the years and become a great Mom and caring person. Jaci always asked and truly cared how all of the family was doing. She will be so missed and will always be in our hearts. Aunt Liz

“ Our hearts go out to Jaci's family during this extremely heartbreaking time. Our family had the pleasure of getting to know her a little when our son played 8th grade football at Dempsey last year. Our community is quite stricken by the loss of this lovely woman. Peace to Todd and the boys, as well as to Fred, whom my husband and I both have had the pleasure of working for at Nationwide. May your memories carry you through to brighter days.

Sincerely,
John, Elizabeth and Jackson Hoover

“ Our hearts are broken. Jaci always took the time to travel up to Cleveland and brought the boys to celebrate Pantaleano events and holidays! She made amazing cheesecake and I always admired her natural and patient mothering. She genuinely delighted in her boys! Her and I would always have a little laugh because each time I saw her I would compliment her on her hair! It was always that adorable cute cut and she was beautiful! She will surely be missed by us all. Many prayers for the entire family. Love Jen, Mike, Avery, Max and Sophia.

“ Eileen Dear Jaci, I will cherish the most your visits to our home. You always came early, helped me get ready for the gang and kept me calm and in check. After all the fun, food and fireworks you, Uncle Jim and I would sit around the fire pit laughing all night. I also remember Uncle Jim and I going to the Mentor Football games watching you in flag corp when we first were married. I will miss your laugh, your smile but most of all you. Love you Aunt Eileen

“ From Uncle Jim. My dear sweet niece I will miss so much. I have many wonderful memories and can't think about how we will not get to make new ones. I remember when You were very young you called me uncle "big" or "beeg" as you said. This was due to having two uncle Jim's. Much later watching you on the flag team at high school football games. I was so impressed you could remember the whole routine and all the marching. All of your family will hold you in their hearts for ever, especially your Uncle Big. From Uncle Jim.

“ Jaci was a wonderful mother, wife, and dear friend. Digging through the hundreds of photos I have of her boys, I realized I don't have as many of her. She was there though..... working hard behind the scenes. She never minded getting her hands dirty if it meant lightening the load for someone else. "We'll miss you" just doesn't cut it.

We love you, Jaci. <3

“ It is hard to believe that Jaci has left us at such an early age. She will be missed. This is a person that shared her love with others, especially her family. She rarely talked about her accomplishments but we know her as a talented musician and an accomplished equestrian. She will be missed and we are confident that the love that she shared with friends and family will be carried forward forever. Her boys and the rest of us will miss her as they remember her for the beautiful person she is. Love Dad.
