“ The only time I got to go home to Columbus to meet Jade was at Christmas. My fondest memory of my time there was watching Tony and Andrea and the kids dote all over her. She was constantly being held, rocked, fed, talked to and sung to. The love this family shares is so real and tangible. I will always remember her in the arms of her parents, them smiling down at her with so much love and admiration. Jade, you have touched countless lives. Thank you, we will always miss you, always remember you and may you rest now in peace.
