“ Dear Nancy, Jody, Tom and Chris. I was very sad to hear of Dad passing I wish I could have been at the service but I was away on vacation. My thoughts and tears are with you all at this time. I cherish all the moments I had with you all. My fondest memory was when Dad was teaching me to run the cleaning machine and I accidentally pushed the wrong button and fluid went everywhere outside the machine needless to say he was frustrated but the last thing he said was I still love you. Jim and Tom taught me everything I know about drycleaning and for that I thank them so much. So rest in Peace Pops I will always love you!!!!

“ My Mother Grace Ailes was in Euchre Club with Nancy. I used to babysit for the kids when there were only 2 of them! Jim would drive me home and was so polite, my Mother would say, you should marry someone as nice as him. I was sorry to hear of his death.
