“ Today is 3/8/24 and i was thinking of Jim enough so to google search his name along with "Japanese Steakhouse" which is where i met him - my parents mr. & mrs aronson living in Eastmoor/Bexley and some other Jewish friends of theirs invested in bringing the JS franchise to Columbus at 270 E. Town St. sometime either 1970-71... i was 16 yo in 1970 when mr. aronson hired Jim and i was working there after school doing whatever Jim had for me and on busy weekend nights I worked the "coat closet"... those were my "wonder years" and Jim was someone i looked up to and learned from but most of all will i always remember his sense of humor- he was freaking hilarious! my parents passed in 2020 and likely all of those JS "partners" from the jewish community are all gone too...i might be the only one left in the world to remember Jim's time at the JS which were at least from 1970 to 1980... i still have a Polaroid photo of me and my girlfriend at a table celebrating my 25th bday in 1979 with Sake cups and a giant Japanese bottle of beer. You could not have a better meal and restaurant experience in Columbus in the 70s.... I've never forgotten you Jim Foulk! I hope to see you again in Heaven.
