“ Mrs. Haley, Lou, and family: I was so saddened to see that Jim had passed away. What a gentleman he was! I remember how much fun he was and that he passed many of his traits on to Lou!! I always knew that I had a friend in him because of his wonderful heart. I know that my Mom and Dad were lucky to call him their friend, as well. We lost a good one, but Heaven has gained another angel...My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. Love, Patty Coughlin

“ My heart is breaking for all of you. I have never met another man like Jim. Jim embraced and loved life and his family and friends. He always made you feel like you were a part of his family even if you weren't. He would welcome you with open arms, a big kiss and hug and a smile that you could NEVER forget...Jim will be missed by anyone that ever met him...He was one of a kind... I am so thankful that Jim was in my life and I will always treasure those memories...Jim and Angie were a perfect couple, they represented what every child would want in a mom and dad and they were perfect grandparents too. Their family values and love for one another was so genuine and true. Any family would be so lucky to have such wonderful role models like Jim and Angie.. I wish all of the family comfort through this time of grief and sorrow.I am so very sorry for your tremendous loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Angie and Family, When I think of a "truly nice guy" I think of Jim. I have know Jim since I was a child and remember many of our fun time together; the OSU fair, bingo games and 7up functions. He always had a smile on his face and a big hug for everyone. I was so happy when he joined by dad at King Thompson delivering signs across the city. I knew they would have a blast together. He was my dad's best friend and much like my dad, always trying to sneak a cookie or two. My mom and Angie were always trying to get them to behave as hard as it was. I am sorry I will be unable to attend the service since I am currently in Arizona. I will have all of you in my thoughts and prayers. I am sure Jeff and Jim will have fun times together in heaven. Love you all, Diane Edgington Koontz
