“ Dear Marilyn and family, So sorry for your loss....I don't think I knew a more loving couple. I was truly blessed to have spent 5 years of my life working with the two of you....in your thirteen years of marriage, you shared more experiences together then most couples do in their lifetime. You will be in my prayers. Love, Sandy

“ *Grew up with Jim (he on College and me on Sheridan Avenues) and graduated from Bexley also in '67. Lost track of him until a colleague of mine from New Albany High School (where I taught for 25 years) ran into him at a clinic and give me his email. “ I am deeply saddened to read Jim's obituary in the DISPATCH today. As a Portal Chief at OSU for over 30 years myself, Jim always had a smile to share and took the time to care about everyone. I would sometimes see Jim outside of OSU football, and the passing of Jim will be a loss for everyone that knew him. I send my sincere condolences to the family

“ To the Norris family: Like so many others, I am shocked and saddened at the passing of a great guy. Jim gave me an usher job 3 years ago and we talked online frequently. I came to know him as a caring, giving person as he shared his love for teaching and his work with the University and the Usher responsibilities that he was so efficient in caring for. He will be missed --especially on game days!! Rest in peace, friend! Roger Marra -- Mount Vernon, Ohio

“ Marilyn, You gave Jim the greatest joy and happiness of his life, beyond anything he thought possible. This is truth from his words and from the glow of his face as he told me. We share your grief.

“ I was taken aback and deeply saddened to read Jim's obituary in the DISPATCH today. Of the hundreds of graduate students I worked with at OSU through the years, Jim was one of my favorites. A bright, creative teacher, a good human being, and an enormously nice guy. Everyone who knew Jim will miss his friendly smile and his innate graciousness. Bonnie and I express our condolences to Marilyn and Jim's extended family. Sincerely, Gene Gilliom, Professor Emeritus, Social Studies & Global Education, OSU.

“ Marylin and family, my deepest regrets to your loss of Jimmy. He was a distant cousin on my mothers side of the family.I had not talked to Jim in many years but remember him well as we grew up. My brother,Dan Bratton, and I spent many fun times growing up with Jim and Mike and our families were good friends. Dan had just passed away at Christmas, so the pain is still there. Jim had such a great life and I am sure that he has spread his knowledge on to so many young people. Again,so sorry for your loss.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Jim on several occasions through my work at the Ohio Department of Education. Jim was a very kind and thoughtful man. I last spoke with him when I talked to his social studies methods students at Otterbein last April. He seemed to have such a great rapport with them. He will be missed.
