

James "Chackochen" Pothan

October 11, 1951 - June 3, 2019

James "Chackochen" Pothan, 67, passed away on Monday, June 3rd, 2019 surrounded by his loving family. Born and raised in Kerala, India, James was the 4th of 6 children. He was preceded in death by his parents Chacko and Annamma Pothan. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Marykutty, 3 children, Silvi, Sini, and Siju, their respective spouses, Ceby, Arun, and Linu, 3 grandchildren Deven, Asha and Nivin and siblings Pennamma, Mariamma, Thresiamma, Sr. Alvina, and Josekutty.

In 1983, James embarked on his next chapter by moving to the United States to pursue better opportunities for him and his family. After moving from New Jersey to Georgia, James and his family settled in Ohio in 2000. As a direct result of his charismatic personality and sincere love for others, James built and sustained lasting friendships throughout his journey. As those close to him can attest, in addition to spending time with his family and friends, James found joy in gardening, grilling and discussing world events. Up until his untimely passing, James led a faithful life as a devout Catholic and valued member of his Church community.

James loved children and St. Jude's lifesaving mission helps a cause that is near and dear to his heart. In lieu of flowers, please copy and paste the link below into a web browser to donate in his memory.
