“ I was shocked to learn of Jim's passing. I attended Bishop Dwenger H.S. (class of '67) and lived in the neighborhood and my father drove the neighborhood "Saints" to school. I often swam in their pool. Jim was always a deep thinker and had such a sense of humor. My deepest sympathy to all his family and friends. My prayers are with Jim and all of you. Pam

“ So sorry to hear about Jim. I went to grade school (Precious Blood) with him. I ran into him a few years back at St. Annes nursing home where both of our mothers were being cared for. Always liked Jim, and from all the comments I've just read, everyone who ever came in contact with him did also. May God grant peace and strength to all of his family and friends, now, and in all the days ahead. Rest In Peace brother.

“ I was a classmate of Jim at Bishop Dwenger. Jim always reminded me of a Jimmy Stewart. Tall, Thin and always had a smile on his face. I am very sorry for your lose. He was a very gentle man. Peace and Love from the Cuttita-McGinley families.

“ Marty and TJ - I am so sorry to hear of your loss, there aren't enough superlatives to describe what a special person Jim was to me and to so many of us. His sincerity and kindness were extraordinary and unique, and I am a better person for having known and worked with Jim. We will treasure the Christmas ornaments forever, our thoughts and prayers are with you. The Staples Family

“ Marty, TJ, and Jim's family and other friends - my condolences to you all. I was so saddened to hear the news about such a wonderful, friendly, loving man this week but I hope you take solace in the fact he is in a better place and looking down upon you with his infectious smile. While I was only able to enjoy Jim's company a few times a year while working together, I very much cherish the memories and good times we shared. May God bless you and Jim.

“ Marty, TJ, Friends & Family, I am without words, so I will post a poem that sums up Jimbo. A Measure of A Man The measure of a man is not determined By his show of outward strength Or the volume of his voice Or the thunder of his actions Or of his intellect or academic abilities It is seen rather in terms of the love that he has For his family and for everyone The strength of his commitments The genuineness of his friendships The sincerity of his purpose The quiet courage of his convictions The fun, laughter, joy and happiness he gives to his family and to others His love of life His patience and his honesty And his contentment with what he has - Grady Poulard MAY WE ALL MEASURE UP AS WELL AS JIM!!

“ Marty, TJ and Family, My thoughts and prayers go out to you. Jim was a wonderful man, very kind and caring. I always knew when I saw his phone number come up that there would be that wonderful, booming "good morning!" (or afternoon) on the other end...it always made me smile...I will miss that. Know that he's always watching over you.

“ To Marty and TJ, I had the pleasure of working with Jim for most of his 14 years at Blackboard and he was always friendly, always asked how I was doing and was genuine in his interactions with me. You could always hear the smile on his face on the phone. I know Jim has been encompassed by the warm light of God and is looking over you with the same love and care as always. Jim, you will be missed.

“ Marty, TJ, and family, our deepest sympathy and prayers go out to you. Jim was a great colleague, mentor and friend. His professionalism, caring spirit, and sense of humor touched all of us who were fortunate to know him. We will always remember how he treated us much more like family than just friends. We will miss him dearly. May God comfort you in this difficult time. Duane and Janice Dalager

“ Dear Marty: I can't tell you enough how sorry I am for your loss. My deepest sympathy is extended to you and your family. My prayers are for your strength as God encompasses you with His arms to guide you at this very sad time, to help your pain. Jim was a wonderful man and will be greatly missed on this earth, but I know he is an Angel now and will always be with you. Love, Kathy

“ Jim always lit up the office with his smile as soon as he walked in our doors. May everytime we remember Jim may it put a smile on our face and in our heart. It was truly a blessing to have him as one of our long time patients. Marty, may you find strength in all your great memories together during your time of healing and may God Bless you and your family. Memories live forever :)

“Marty and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was such a wonderful man and I know he will be missed greatly. Originally I knew Jim through work, as a Blackboard customer. Over the years, (as many others here have mentioned), he became more of a friend than a colleague. Funny, caring, engaging, and always positive. He will be missed by so many. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“Jim was one of the first Transact Reps to take me on the road to present on BbOne, and I will never forget our trips to Purdue and Toledo. He was a great coach and mentor during those early days and I always enjoyed our long drives together. For some weird reason, he always spoke highly of me in front of clients, but the reality is that I was given the opportunity to present to them because they trusted Jim implicitly. Jim was a good friend and I've missed him since he left Blackboard. Fortunately, I have a couple of the wonderful Christmas ornaments to remember him by! My thoughts and prayers will always be with him and his family and he will be one of the Blackboarders I will never forget.

“ Families experience life together. They multiply joys, divide sorrows and support each other throughout life’s journey. At Blackboard, we are a work family and we do the same. Jim was a “lively” part of our work family for many years. During his tenure here, he positively touched the lives and hearts of countless people, both personally and professionally. We will treasure fond memories of Jim and he will be deeply missed.

“ Dear Mrs. Rissing & Family, Please accept my condolences during this unfortunate time. Jim was our Blackboard representative at Valparaiso University. I always found him to be an intelligent and friendly individual. I was very sorry to hear of his illness and monitored his progress through the web posting. I was shocked to hear of his passing. All of us at VU will surely miss him in the fabric of our lives. I wish you and your family peace during this difficult time. Sincerely, Woody Dresden

“ Marty and TJ, My sincerest condolences. Jim was a colleague but more importantly a friend. I always enjoyed his camaraderie and a supportive ear when I needed one. I always knew when I needed help, he would be there. He would email my favorite adult beverage after a particularly tough week. He was a special person. I will miss him immensely. You are both in my thoughts. Kelley Line

“Marty, TJ and family - I had the amazing privilege of being on "Jim's team" at Blackboard about 6 years ago. His generosity as a peer, teammate and friend was something one can only hope to match. He openly taught me the secrets of his sales trade - whether I wanted it that day or not - and I will forever be grateful to him. His infectious smile and funny laugh will be sorely missed. It is a rare occasion that work relationships turn into friendships - Jim had that uncanny ability to make everyone feel special and loved; he, effortlessly, turned business into friendships. He was one of a kind and will always be in our hearts. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ To Marty & Family: Had the honor and true pleasure to work with Jim and will always remember how much he cared about his clients and co-workers. He always had everyone's best interests in mind. He was a calming influence, always bringing logic and reason to the discussion. I'll miss his infectious smile and straight to the point humor, but I'm thankful for being able to say that I'll have something to miss. Will keep you all in my thoughts
