

James R. Robison

November 14, 2010

James Ransom Robison, age 93, of Columbus, formerly of Clintonville and Worthington, passed away Sunday morning, November 14, 2010. He was preceded in death by his wife of 70 years, Betty Jane Robison and his son, John David Robison. Survived by sons, Donald K. (Mary Ann) of Upper Arlington and James N. (Mary Beth) of Naples, FL; granddaughters, Amy Robison and Anna (Stephen) Gretschnann; great-grandchildren, Aidan and Grace Gretschnann all of Columbus; sister-in-law, Ellen Robison; niece, Julie (Tim) Hagan all of Maitland, FL; nephews, Pete (Carol) Robison, Bill (Teresa) Robison all of Columbus; grand-nieces and nephews. Jim graduated from North High School and was an all-state center on the football team of 1934. He attended The Ohio State University and was on Francis Schmidt's Ohio State football team of 1935. He was also a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity. Jim served in the Marine Corps during WWII and was a member of the Masonic Lodge. He started out as an Illustrator for Lazarus Department Stores, followed by Xerox Education Publications ("My Weekly Reader"), and then went on to become a free-lance illustrator in Columbus for 30 years. Jim was as gentle and kind as a man could be, he always had exquisite taste and took his love of antiques and art to the level of connoisseur. He was a rare combination of physical power, athleticism, artistic abilities, sensibilities and graciousness. A private funeral service will be observed by the family with his burial at Union Cemetery. In lieu of flowers contributions can be made to the Kobacker House/HomeReach Hospice, 3595 Olentangy River Road, Columbus, OH 43214 in Jim's memory. Arrangements by Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home, Worthington. Please visit www.rutherfordfuneralhome.com to send on-line condolences.
