“ Pam and Family, Sorry to learn of the loss of Jim. The loss of a love one is never easy. It was good to see Jim at the Weaver gathering. Jim lived his life the way I remembered, caring and easy going always devoted to family and friends. A life of that regard is highly commended. God cares for our daily needs and when He calls we all answer. Our hope is that we will meet again sometime when we get to heaven. I know with time for healing, good memories will highlight your life, as they have mine for all these years. We will keep you in our prayers. We pray God will bless you and your family the rest of your lives.

“ To Jim's family; I was shocked and saddened to read in the paper about Jim. I worked with Jim in the electrical trade twenty some years ago. We worked together at Hatfield Electric when we were building St. Ann's Hospital and also at the Huntington building downtown. Jim was a great guy. He was almost always in a good mood. He taught me so much about control wiring and alarm systems. He wasn't just a good craftsman. He was always a gentleman. I can count on one hand the guys who were respectful of the women and who made it known to the crudest of the men they would not tolerate that behavior when the women were in the crew. Jim and I always got along great. I am so sorry for your loss. He truly loved his family. His eyes would light up whenever he talked about all of you. Please know that prayers for you and your family are being lifted up. He was truly one of the best electricians I ever worked with. Please accept my condolences for your loss. Dee (Goode) Hemmingsen
