“ As a former caregiver to Jim and his very wonderful wife Karen. I learned so much from him from history, medical, the whole story of “Scrooge” and most importantly himself. I saw the unconditional love they had for each other, regardless how they were feeling. I think of you guys often.

“ To the Wasserman family, my dad (Lynn Cashman) had the BEST stories of his childhood with Jim! Stories of Jim riding his bike with nitroglycerin to the quarry to blow things up, an 8th grade mice research lab (later substantiated by science journals) and on and on. He must have been so resourceful - where does one obtain such things in that decade (before amazon?!) I think Jim was one of my dad's best and most true friends in life. So glad that he had him as a friend. Blessings and condolences to all. Love, Kristin (Cashman) Allen, Huron Ohio.
