“ To: Bradley, Michael, & Rick. Your mother, and my true dear friend, was a lady of grace, beauty, and compassion. She loved her family with a deep devotion, and got such joy from being a part in supporting all of your activities and endeavors. She was a FULL TIME MOM and loved every minute of watching you all grow and mature. I am so glad that Mark and I had the opportunity to have a nice visit with both of your parents before they passed, and that I was able to have conversations with your Mom through out her last months. She was braver than most, and faced the future head on. Just remember, she is in God's arms, and you will meet again!
