Jean Eleanor Heidkamp, 91, of Columbus, Ohio, died peacefully on Wednesday, Nov. 17, at Wesley Glen Retirement Community. Born in Chicago, she resided in Columbus for 42 years.

In addition to her parents, Arthur and Eleanor Eiberg, Jean was predeceased by her beloved husband of 56 years, Phil Heidkamp. She was a graduate of William Howard Taft High School in Chicago and was retired from Suburban News in Columbus.

An avid reader, Jean loved children, flowers, classic movies, the Buckeyes, animals and chocolate. But mostly, she loved the time she spent with her children and grandchildren, all of whom are blessed to have known her kind and gentle heart.

Jean is also survived by her grandchildren Dan (Candice) Hiestand, Emily (Eric) Black, Matthew Foglia, Philip Heidkamp, Claudia Tanney, Alison Foglia, Landon Heidkamp, Wesley Heidkamp, Rachel Tanney and great-grandchildren Joseph Black, Abigail

Hiestand and Evelyn Black. Jean will also be missed by her twin sister Joan Donley of Morton Grove, Ill.; brother-in-law Jerry (Donna) Heidkamp, sister-in-law Marjorie Heidkamp, B.V.M., and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Jean's family will always be grateful, as was she, for the care and kindness she received from the staff at Wesley Glen.

“ *Hi Cousins,
I was sorry to hear the news about Aunt Jean. I have fond memories of her and your father at all the family gathering at Windsor Ave and the family picnics. And later at our mini-family picnics in the North East. Barbara and I will be keeping all of you in our thoughts and prayers during this sad time.

“ I am a friend of Janet's from GE. I consider it a privilege to have spent time with Jean. I would always stop by when I visited Janet/Columbus. She was a wonderful lady and such a great mother to you all. Jean always had a smile and was such a nice person to be around. I am glad she is in Peace and Bach with her loving husband. God Bless, Heather Steven
