“ We extend our deepest condolences to the Hummel family. We share in the grief of losing Jean, one of the most beautiful souls we ever had the pleasure of meeting. Jean felt more like one of our family and her presence will truly be missed in our day to day life. Jean exemplified the love of Jesus to so many. She was always willing to give of herself to help others. Jean loved the Lord and it showed in everything about her. Jean was smart, classy, kind, giving, loving, helpful, loyal and faithful. Anyone who had the privilege of knowing Jean was left a better person for having had her in their lives. She sent the most beautiful cards, always with the most perfect sentiments. We will always cherish the beautiful life she lived on earth but we celebrate her eternal life she gets to live in heaven with Jesus, free of all the burdens of this world. We will see her again one day. Rest in peace precious Jean.

Love always,

Jack, Jane and Kathy Bartenschlag
