After graduating from Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri she married and settled in Worthington, Ohio to raise a family of five children. "The Blueberry Box" her nickname for the family blue Volkswagen Van is where she spent countless hours driving the children to sports, activities, games with humor and patience. Jean's five children adored her and her belief in making the best of life, making friends and her ability to hold a tête-à-tête anywhere. Her children will be retelling her lively stories with smiles and tears.
