“ Jeff was always such a welcome heart, always kind and always full of joy. He was our deck designer, lawn care consultant, neighbor, party friend and dog uncle. No way can we ever imagine anyone taking his place. He made our neighborhood a true home with heart and hope. Bless you Jeff and your family too. Thank you for who you for what you did in this troubled world.

“ To all the Emig family my heartfelt condolences in your time of loss. Jeff and I were high school friends. I was this goofy kid who as a freshman came from Holy Trinity. Jeff was one of the first people who befriended me and we became fast friends for our 4 years at BHS. I have many fond memories.
