“ Jeff and I were next door neighbors and friends all through grade school and high school. We were back and forth to each others house every day and spent endless hours playing basketball in their driveway court. We were in Boy Scouts together and had many adventure filled outings I remember to this day. One vivid memory is about learning to send / receive semaphore flag signals as a way to earn a merit badge. It took us days and days to learn the technique. We laughed constantly as we mangled each other's attempts to understand a message. Each misinterpreted word was more ridiculous than the last. Finally we were able to demonstrate our skill to an adult leader and we both passed the test. We were good friends and good teammates. RIP, Eric

“ Jeff was a great, kind, man. I have enjoyed working with you for the past 6 years. I will miss your kind voice and words. When I lost my Son, Jeff drove all the way to Cincinnati to pay respects to a Boy he never met. That meant so much to me then and still today. I hope you are at peace Jeff. I will always remember the kind soul I was blessed to know. Rest in Heaven. Daneal

This picture was from Jeff's 60th birthday. His office was next to mine and his obsession with Jelly Beans on my desk, made him a consistent visitor! He was always a great friend and never failed to help anyone that needed anything. I know he is feeling great now and is happy, but he will be missed.
