“ A testimonial to a man well loved: If you want to know who he was, look at how he lived...He was generous, loving, funny, devoted, hard working and very successful, yet balanced his life well by being very involved with his family, friends, and organizations. He was a role model in so many ways. I admired and respected Jeff as much as any man I've ever known. He and I were brother and sister from the day I married his brother, Rick. Jeff spent much time with us and his entire family. I'm not sure how he accomplished to reach out and befriend so many, but he did it naturally and so well. There will be a gaping hole in so many lives with this loss...thank you sweet brother for your contributions to my life. We had so many talks, so many great times and so much love for each other..God rest your beautiful soul....I love you

“ I'm absolutely shocked that Jeff has passed, we saw each other every week at the local auctions, and he was without a doubt one of the nicest, friendliest, honest car dealers I have ever known. I've known Jeff over 30 years and he always had that trademark smile on his face, he really was a good guy! It seems such a shame all of the good guys go first, we need more Jeff Rader's in our business. My best wishes to Nancy and Jeff's children and families, God Bless Jeff's soul and welcome him to heaven. Greg Nelson
