Jenny Leigh Bird

November 20, 1980 to June 5, 2014

Jen was born in Henderson, KY. She graduated from Henderson County High School in 1999. She was a caring, thoughtful, and loving mother, wife, sister, daughter and friend. She liked to cook, dance and do crafts. And she loved to shop. Jen was family-oriented and enjoyed watching her children experience everything from zoos to plays to museums. Her faith was incredibly important to her. Jen was unique, imaginative and fun, her eyes twinkled when she was being mischievous and her smile was contagious. She was always kind to others and made sure that everyone around her was happy and felt loved. Once you met Jen for the first time, she made you feel like you had known here for years. She was my best friend, soul mate, the mother of my two beautiful children and the most loving and caring person I have ever met. I will never understand or never be OK, but I have the two most beautiful children to remind me every day how special Jen was.

She is survived by her husband, Josh Bird, her two children Sophie and Connor, her siblings Paul Britt (Lacey), Denise Britt, Penny Fox (John), Kandice Hood (David), Ruby Wiseman (Joshua), her father Dennis Britt, her mother Sharon Wimsatt (Ron) as well as her nieces and nephews, Tyler Parrish, LJ and Johna Fox, Layla and Kyndle Hood, Layne Wiseman, Scottie

Keys and Paul Jr. Britt.

“ *Dear Josh and Family,
It is with great sadness as I compass and send you this note, as I recently learned of Jenny's untimely passing. Although we had not seen one another in a long while, I always treasured our time together. Her infectious smile and dear voice could light up a room and fill it with instant happiness. I will continue to think of her and smile on many fond memories we shared. I am very sorry for your loss of your wife, best friend and soul mate. If you need anything, please know I will be here. Rest in peace beautiful angel.
My deepest condolences,
Jennifer Caputo*
