“ My thoughts and Prayers are with Jerry and the Hoheisel Family. Jerry was so respectful, smart, and a very kind person. I will always remember Jerry's support and car rides he provided to and from basketball practices at St. Michael's and Bishop Watterson with his Son and my Friend Eric. Those were wonderful times! I pray the Hoheisel family is comforted in knowing Jerry's strong faith is rewarded with everlasting peace in Heaven, with our Lord Jesus Christ.

“ I had both the honor of knowing and privilege of working with Jerry for 9 years in the Allen Bradley Columbus office. Today is a time of both sadness and joy. Sad because I am grieving the loss of a friend and co-worker, rejoicing in knowing he is now in heaven with our Lord and Savior.

I will always cherish those memories and be grateful of the time spent with this very special person. Our condolences to Norma, Andy and the Hoheisel family.

“ How do you make rational decisions? How do you convey and deserve respect? How do you gain and demand trust? How strong is your moral compass? The questions that you ask yourself early in your career are as critical as they are difficult. You're forming core principles for the first time through new experiences and new obstacles. If you're lucky, you have a circle of people whom you can answer these questions together. I am lucky. Jerry helped me answer difficult questions, while himself asking some along the way. I considered Jerry one of my most valuable early career advisors both as a professional and as a man. You will truly be missed. My condolences to Norma, Andy and the rest of the Hoheisel family.
