“ *Coremany family,
I was devastated this morning when I found out about the passing of Jim. He was so kind and always made me laugh. I would visit Ace often on a search for paint colors. He talked about his daughter and the home he and his wife (Lori) cared for together. He always brought a smile to my face and teased my son, making sure he always had his popcorn before we left. Jim was truly a kind soul and I'm very, very sorry for your loss. May the words of friends, family and strangers bring you peace during this difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.*

“ Dear Cormany Family,
Jim will be so missed at Post 239. He was dedicated to veterans and his many friends in the American Legion. His friendly and fun nature made him the perfect server at our monthly breakfasts. He always made me laugh. I always enjoyed going to the Ace hardware because he was a great help and made it fun. May God bless you and give you peace at his passing and keep him in His perpetual love and light.

I enjoyed the laughter as we talked about Detroit land marks, sports, dogs and how we were raised. Thank you my friend. May the memories console and sustain the family. God bless all of you. “ I am deeply saddened by Jim's passing. I hope he knew how important and special he was to those who worked with him at DRC. Not only was he multi-talented (he could do just about anything - make coffee, process payroll, fix computers, and much more), he was generous with his time and always willing to help. His wry sense of humor, kind words, and reassuring presence boosted my spirit every day. Wishing peace and comfort to his family.

I knew Jim from the time he lived across the street with his wife Lorie, who is one of my oldest and dearest friends. I am still in shock--Jim and I spent many hours on my front porch just talking about life-or the dogs or whatever the topic of the hour was! Uncle Jimmy became my nickname for him. Truly a great guy. I will miss him. Rest in peace Jim.

Jim was always a great help to everyone at DRC. He could fix any computer problem and he did it with a smile! Few people are so consistently pleasant as Jim was. I am saddened by his far-too-early departure.
