

Jimmie Louise Kinnan

March 19, 1951 - April 12, 2023

Jimmie Louise Kinnan (née Sapp) passed away, surrounded by family, on April 12th at the age of 72. Jimmie graduated from Miami University, where she met her husband of 46 years, Brent Kinnan. They were married in August of 1976, and both went on to attend the University of Akron School of Law. They then moved to Columbus to start their careers and a family. Jimmie had a successful career in the public sector and spent over twenty years as General Counsel for the School Employees Retirement System. Jimmie enjoyed more than a decade of retirement, traveling with Brent, spending time with her daughters and granddaughters, and taking daily walks with her golden retrievers.

Jimmie is survived by her husband, Brent Kinnan; her daughters, Jessica (Charles) Baverman and Stephanie Kinnan; her granddaughters, Eleanor Baverman and Margaret Baverman; and her sister, Virgie Ewing. She is preceded in death by her father, James Sapp, and her mother, Virginia (Duncan) Sapp.

Visitation will be 5:00-7:00 pm on Thursday, April 20th, at Rutherford-Corbin funeral home, followed by a funeral service at 11:00 am the following day at the same location. Memorials may be directed to Planned Parenthood or a women's charity of your choice.

“ Jimmie and I worked together at SERS until I retired in 2004. She was smart, funny, and loved her family very much. Because of a “technical conversation “ we had some years ago, I think of her every time I fold my laundry. And always will. And that’s a good thing!
