“ Ron and family, we were so terribly sorry to hear about Jo. It's been quite awhile since we've seen you, but we always enjoyed spending time with you at the Starners and in Florida. Jo was always so pleasant and friendly, that we felt like we'd known her all our lives. I know how shocking her passing must be to all of you, and pray that in time that your fond memories with her will give you comfort. Take care of yourselves and your family. Hug each other just a little tighter.

“ We were so, so sorry to hear about Jo's passing. She was a wonderful lady--always so sweet and cheerful when we went to Dr. Seed's office.

She and Ron raised a wonderful family here in Reynoldsburg and were missed when they moved to Powell. I am so happy she got to spend those years with her children and grandchildren.

Hugs to Cindy, Cheryl, Todd and Ron through this most difficult time.
