“ Sharon, I'm sorry not to have learned about this in time to attend your mom's service. She was a dear soul whom I had the pleasure of knowing through our years at McCord. Prayers for your comfort.

“ I only knew Joan through my mom, Judy Miller. She was always a great friend to my mom through the proverbial thick and thin. After my mom suffered a stroke and had to go into assisted living, Joan called her regularly and then sent the kindest homemade cards at least monthly. Her kindness and friendship will be greatly missed.
